WaterView is not responsible for any error in recording a Member's play level.
- Points are used to determine MYEDGE card tier level, and there are minimum Point requirements associated with each tier level. Point levels are reviewed periodically and adjustments to a Member's card tier level may be made based upon the Points earned by the Member.
- Points may be redeemed for free slot play ("FreePlay"), restaurant purchases, hotel stays, entertainment events, gift shop purchases and other items which may be offered by WaterView. In addition, Members may receive additional offers from WaterView from time to time.
